A SHELTON LOCK (DERBY) MYSTERY

26 March 2012

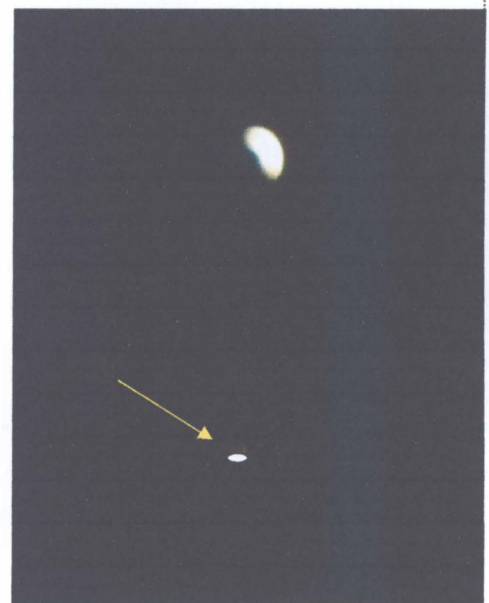

This photo is an enlargement of the object seen over Shelton Lock, an area of Derby where other UFO objects have been observed in the past.

We were contacted by local resident 'Sharon' about the sighting that had been observed by her and her husband and who kindly forwarded a series of photographs taken on the night.

"Please see attached JPEG images which I took on the evening of 26th March 2012 from my front garden at Shelton Lock. As I mentioned on the telephone, I wasn't really expecting them to turn out very well as I only have a relatively cheap camera a (Sony Cyber-Shot)."

"I was surprised when looking at the times that I stayed out so long, it was a cold night and I could have sworn I was only out there for a couple of minutes." ***

PRA analyst Paul Usher, commented: "The objects are badly out of focus, also the time of the photo cannot be correct as it still appears to be twilight, but this could have been the result of local light pollution. 'Sharon' used an iso of 800 and kept the camera very steady. The moon could be seen above Venus at that time and no other stellar objects were visible. Given the available data, it is unlikely that we will be able to come to any firm conclusion."

 ED: An interesting comment by 'Sharon'. Do we have a case of 'missing time' here, while observing the UFO object? (The yellow arrow denotes the position of the object)

A Costa Encounter In Spain: 8th April 2012

(Olive Press : Spain April 14 2012)

EXCLUSIVE by James Bryce and Wendy Williams

A BRITISH expat is convinced she saw a UFO hovering above the Costa del Sol.

Mary Ann Whyte Wood, 61, a retired company director from Berkshire, saw what she described as a large, gold, cigar-shaped object. She believes it was the reason three Spanish fighter jets – and a helicopter – were scrambled in the area in the middle of the night over Easter. She told the Olive Press the ‘spooky’ object had a kite-shaped sheet below it which pulsed with red and green flashing lights. She insisted it hovered for around three to four minutes before disappearing in the blink of an eye. “I was gobsmacked,” the widow, who lives in Benahavis, explained. “My son-in-law is a senior commercial pilot and my daughter is training to be one so I know what a plane looks and sounds like, but I’m at a loss to explain what it was.”

Clearly startled by the incident, she continued: “It sounded like a huge industrial tumble dryer, I have searched on the internet but I can’t find anything that looks even remotely similar.” Her neighbour Alison Woods, who is married to a former RAF engineer, confirmed the strange incident. “I heard something very strange that night, that really was not a normal plane,” she said “Curiously my husband saw something that matched the same description while he was serving in Cyprus in the 1990s. “He reported it to the airbase but they said there was nothing on the radar. “Of course, he was made a laughing stock the following day but he is convinced that what he saw can’t be explained,” she added.

Mary Ann Whyte Wood

The sighting came at 5am on Easter Sunday (8 April) at the same time loud fighter jets – probably Eurofighters – caused panic among expats along the coast. Hundreds of people called and emailed the Olive Press to enquire about the incident. DJ Maurice Boland, from iTalk FM, was one of the first on the phone on the Sunday morning. “It was frightening, I thought something was going to crash into my house,” he said. “My grandchildren were crying, the dogs were going mad and I could see lights going on in houses all over the place.”

One British reader, who asked to remain anonymous, told the paper this weekend: “It was terrifying. They were clearly tailing this strange-looking craft. “I cannot describe what it was, but it was long and thin and had flashing lights. It was definitely not a plane or helicopter. “It made a very strange sound and moved slowly before suddenly shooting off at top speed.” Many insisted that as well as the planes and a helicopter, there was clearly something else flying around. While their motive remains unclear, one expat James Harnetty, 30, from London, claims the jets appeared to be searching for something. “The jet I saw was definitely after something, or trying to protect the coast. It looked like a Eurofighter and I could hear a helicopter in the area as well,” added the health shop owner.

Police in Marbella said: “We have been contacted by many worried citizens, we have only been able to find out that the flights had authorisation, but we don’t know any more.” Police in Estepona also confirmed they had received a large number of calls but admitted they were equally baffled. A spokesman for Malaga Airport’s operations centre was guarded, adding: “We are unable to comment.” A spokesman for nearby Gibraltar Airport said that it was unaware of any such activity as Gibraltar air space – which is only open from 8am-9pm – was closed. But finally a spokesman from the Spanish Air Force said a Spanish Eurofighter jet had been scrambled from Moron to intercept an unidentified plane flying without lights or a flight plan. “We do not know what exactly the plane was doing as we were unable to locate it, but the most probable explanation is it was a plane from Morocco carrying drugs.” But residents remain sceptical given the cost to mount such an operation.

AN ASTOUNDING REVELATION AT THE PRA MEETING 27 MARCH 2012

By Omar Fowler

A crowded meeting welcomed the guest speaker 'Patricia', someone that has had more than their fair share of strange encounters and psychic experiences throughout her life.

It was the first time that 'Patricia' had addressed an audience to talk about her past experiences and although a little nervous at first, she soon realised that she was in the midst of a sympathetic audience that were eagerly awaiting to hear of her unusual experiences.

I first came in contact with Patricia when I investigated the sighting of a large boomerang shaped object seen over Ilkeston, Derbyshire on the night of the 20th July 1998.

Patricia sitting on the left and waiting to address the PRA meeting.

The boomerang object had first been seen by Patricia's husband who had gone outside their home and spotted two pulsating white lights in the sky, with smaller lights along what appeared to be the body of the object.

Patricia's psychic and UFO experiences began when she was 14 years of age:

"The first recollection I've got, was when I woke up and I was thirsty. I walked over to the window and saw this big white light in the sky and a smaller one going around it and then it went inside the big one. The UFO events carried on from thereSince I've been married, my children, especially my eldest son, they've all been involved in seeing things and having strange dreams."

It transpired that Patricia and her son often shared the same dream sequence! Later, the dreams began to involve strange hooded figures and small 'Grey' beings "There were the tall one's, the one's with the white robes, some of them have long blonde hair, they have very light hair. We still talk about that time I saw the 'Grey', I don't normally see them like that, not as much as the others."

"The tall one's, the one's with the white robes, some of them have long blonde hair, they have very light hair. There's some that you see that don't show their faces, they have like a hood on. They don't always show their faces, but I've seen their faces.....Something happened that I have never told anyone about, it might just have been a coincidence, but it did upset me and I wouldn't tell anyone."

"It made me feel ill. What happened was, you know the 9/11 'Twin Towers', well it was the Friday night (7th Sept.2001) and I had a really bad dream and I got up on the Saturday and I came into the lounge and I felt really, really upset, I did, it made me feel ill." Patricia's son added "She didn't want to talk about it, or anything."

The Premonition of 9/11

Patricia revealed to the audience how this experience had shocked her..."I was physically upset, I had a dream that I was in this UFO and I was overlooking this, what I said, was an island. I could see the land with water coming around it like this (pointing), I saw the tall buildings and these beings with the long white robes on were standing at the side of me. For some reason, I couldn't turn around and look at them. I tried to, but I couldn't."

"I was being made to watch this thing happen. They said there was going to be this terrible tragedy where there would be...I know they said a figure three, but I couldn't remember the exact number...I saw the impact of this fireball hit this tall building and I knew, I felt as if I was there, I knew that all these people had been killed!"

"They (the Aliens) said this was what was going to happen, it was not going to be a natural tragedy, but it was going to be humans killing other people. I actually saw the impact and I knew then that people were dead! I tried to turn around and I said 'can't you stop this? You're showing it to me, but why can't you do something about it?' They said to me that they can't intervene in matters like that, but that they would be there when those people.....I know this sounds stupid doesn't it, but they said that they would be there when those 'souls' left their physical bodies and they would be there to help them."

© Copyright: David Sankey

"They were not allowed to stop what was going to happen, because it was the human beings that were doing it, but they would be there when the souls left their bodies, to get their souls. I know it sounds ridiculous, but that's what they said. I saw the figure '3' and I didn't know whether it was 3,000 or 30,000. I wrote that down somewhere as well."

During the original interview at Patricia's home, I asked her husband "Did she tell you about his, before it happened?"

He replied "Yes, it's just as she said, she told me before it happened, in fact she looked really distraught and sick that morning and I said to her, what's up, what's the matter, but she said she didn't want to talk yet. On the day when it happened (Tuesday 11th Sept.2001) she was really bad, she was worse and she was sobbing." Patricia's son added, "When that happened, it scared all of us, didn't it."

Patricia had the dream on the Friday night and she revealed that she had told her husband and son, before it happened....During my interview I was shown the note that Patricia had made on the calendar, which she had kept. Written in on Saturday 8th Sept 2001 were the words 'Bad Dream'!

When asked to describe the Alien figures in more detail, Patricia said "I couldn't, I was paralysed, all I saw was the long robes either side of me, but I have seen them before. The last time I saw them was when Gorbachev was kidnapped by the Military. I was also shown this the day before it happened. I did see their faces then, they were sitting in a half circle and the one that spoke to me was sat in the middle. These had shorter light coloured hair and they were all tall."

Patricia then went on to disclose other strange events that had occurred in their home. This included items of cutlery bending during their mealtime. She recounted one particular incident, "I was eating my dinner and my fork just bent straight over" then it happened to her son. He explained what had happened to him, "I was sitting there eating my dinner and I was watching the 'telly', you don't actually look at your fork, then suddenly my fork bent right over and followed the shape of my knuckles. I said to my mother, this isn't funny any more!" His father added (at the time of my interview), "It (the fork) didn't go forward, it just went backward. It went as soft as butter."

Patricia then told the PRA meeting of another strange event, "I had a psychic experience once, when my best friend Doris died. Her husband eventually married again and although we remained friends, we really didn't keep in touch. We got on OK with his new wife, she was nice. Then one night, I had this dream, I saw my friend, the one that had died and she told me that her husband had taken down a picture of her. Well I hadn't seen him for a year and I hadn't had any contact with him. I thought I can't just ring up out of the blue, telling him to 'put that picture back, the picture that you took down.' I could end up looking a right Charlie."

"But the thought would not go, it just kept on at me pushing, pushing," said Patricia "I thought to myself, its no good, I've got to ring up even at the chance of sounding crazy. Anyway, I rang up and he (the widowed husband) came to the phone. He asked how I was, then I said to him, I've got to tell you something, I've had a dream. Doris is very upset that you took down a picture of her and she wants it putting back! Now if it's not true, fine I've told you....then the phone went dead."

"After a little while his wife came on the phone and said can I explain something to you. It wasn't my fault! Before Doris died, she had a portrait painted of herself, he (her husband) thought I didn't like it and he's just taken it down. Two days ago he just took it down and put it away, but it wasn't me that told him to do it. I'm quite happy with her picture being on the wall, but he thought it wasn't nice as he's married to me now."

"Shortly afterwards he (the husband) came back on the phone and he was crying. I said I'm sorry I've upset you but I didn't know.....The picture's back there now, it's been back there ever since.".....

In Conclusion

Patricia's grandmother was a medium and her mother had psychic abilities. It is highly probable that this would account for Patricia being gifted in this way. This could have enhanced her ability to have such vivid messages while in a dream state. The message from the dead wife about her picture being moved is a prime example.

Without doubt, the most sensational revelation is the 'OOB' dream meeting with 'Aliens' when Patricia was shown the 9/11 disaster scenario. Contactees have often stated in the past that they have been shown pictures/hologram presentations of impending disasters on Earth, but this has usually consisted of starving millions or Earthly disasters such as earthquakes etc.

If we accept that such presentations are made to 'contactees' then we must accept Patricia's '9/11' story of seeing the 'fireball' hit the tall buildings surrounded by water. A description acceptable if the actual location cannot be identified by the witness. We have also heard before that the extraterrestrials 'Cannot intervene with events on Earth'.

The really astounding revelation is Patricia's statement that when the displayed Earthly disaster took place, the Aliens said that "They would be there when those souls left their physical bodies and would be there to help them!"

The implication that the Aliens are not only inter-dimensional but interactive with our human 'souls' is an entirely new concept. Are we dealing with not only the mystery of extraterrestrial entities but with inter-dimensional entities? Must we wait until we die to discover the final answer?

Sightings of UFOs in the United States (Filers Files #2012)

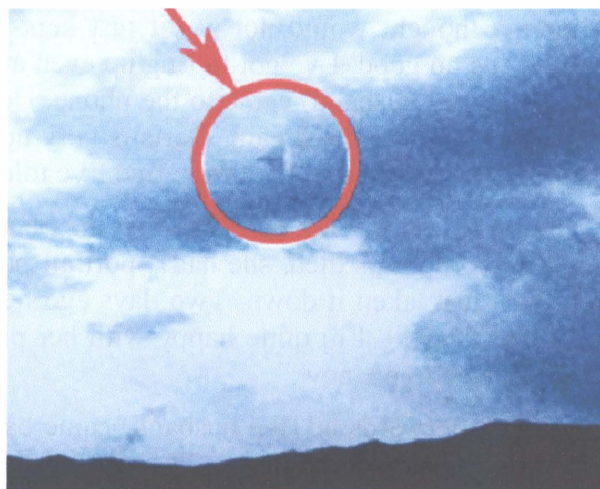

Roosevelt Lake – On February 17, 2012, while taking pictures my girlfriend and I noticed a UFO in the picture during a trip. While viewing it in the camera viewer which has digital night shot. It was just getting dark around 6 PM and looking south high over the lake, my girlfriend shot several pictures before the UFO shot back up into the sky. One of the photos shows the kids and me down at lake with the UFO straight across from us. It was only seen with the camera. It looks like a glowing angel.

Note: Apparently the witnesses only saw the object through the infrared spectrum camera viewfinder. The night shot function was activated and the camera was detecting beyond the visible range. Thanks to William Puckett, Director <http://www.UFOsnw.com> (Similar to Shelton Lock UFO on page 1 Ed.)

Montana Triangle

Butte -- I was randomly taking pictures and caught this on camera on March 25, 2012. I almost missed it because it was caught in the upper right hand corner. There is NOTHING above our little house, no satellite dish or nothing. The pink blob is just a lens flare as you get when shooting towards the sun. If you zoom in you can see well. This is the second aerial object I have seen over the last 3 years. I don't think there is JUST the typical disc or triangle objects out there. Think of all the objects not picked up by the naked eye that are in our space.

New York Aliens of Light

CAPE VINCENT -- I had stayed up late Christmas Eve, sewing Christmas stockings for nieces in 1992. My spouse was in bed and only my sewing machine light and the hall light was on. I went to kitchen and saw a huge glowing light or movements in farm field directly across the street. I went into bedroom to wake my husband to look out bedroom window. He awoke and remembers seeing the lights but could not stay awake. I was aggravated as he always has been interested in the unknown, but could not stay awake. I continue looking out the window, only to see an entity that appeared to have a masculine type human form, very tall, 7-8 feet tall. The only way I can describe it is as if it was a form surrounded by a Neon light. Entity was standing by light pole directly across from the end of my driveway. I then became frightened and just prayed for God not to let whatever it was to not bother us. Triangle Craft Spotted Flying Over Yorkshire

From 'The Sun' 20 April 2012

Mercury Press & Media Ltd. Last Updated 29 March 2012

The mysterious “Dudley Dorito” UFO has been spotted for the fourth time in five years flying through a cloudless sky over woodland in Yorkshire.

The object, which looks like an extra-terrestrial tortilla chip, was captured by an amateur cameraman who posted the footage on YouTube.

He can be heard saying “I don’t know what that is” as the triangular aircraft glides silently across the frame above a forest in the north of England.

The UFO was dubbed the Dudley Dorito after its first sighting over the Midlands in 2007 but it is unclear whether the YouTube footage is real or a hoax.

Eye-witnesses first saw the black triangle hovering over Halesowen and they reported the close encounter to UFORM, a local group of UFO-spotters. Then in 2010 David Allan from Sutton Coldfield reported seeing a triangular object four or five times bigger than an aeroplane in the skies on Bonfire Night. A few weeks after that 21-year-old quality inspector Minuesh Mistry saw the Dudley Dorito hovering above his home in Tipton in the West Midlands. But the phenomenon of “black triangle” UFOs has been dismissed as similar to the effect ball lightning has on the atmosphere.

Project Condign was the name of a study undertaken by Defence Intelligence Staff between 1997 and 2000. The MOD department claimed the airborne objects were “supernormal atmospheric plasma phenomenon”.

Ed: The ‘SUN’ newspaper appears ignorant of the ‘Flying Triangle’ UFO’s and the Belgian FT Wave of 1989/90 or the fact that the PRA investigated fifty two ‘Flying Triangle’ incidents that occurred over the Derby area between December 1994 and May 1995.

We also have on record the fact that these craft are alien controlled and have abducted people in the past i.e. Bill & Peggy Foster’s book ‘The Black Triangle Abduction’. USA 16/11/1996.

MASSIVE TRIANGLE UFO ENCOUNTERED IN NEW JERSEY

Close Encounter at McGuire Air Force Base

By Billy Booth (USA)

Walking the Dogs Cookstown, New Jersey - 08-15-1983 - I returned home from work to my residence in Cookstown, New Jersey. Since my girlfriend didn't have dinner ready, I decided to take my two dogs for a walk. I had already been warned by the New Hanover Police not to walk my dogs through town as they were vicious, but I kept them as guard dogs. I chose instead to walk them through the adjacent property which encompassed a large field and a since shuttered Oil Company.

Dogs Unsettled

It was very humid this night and the sky was overcast and no stars were visible. I began the walk around the outside perimeter of the property along the wood line, when it became obvious that my dogs were growling at something that was not in my field of vision. Since I had already had trouble with the police and couldn't see what was upsetting the dogs, I began to walk the dogs away from the wood line to avoid them attacking a person or another animal. I had then reached the middle of the field, away from the shadow of the wood line and now the dogs became even more aggressive and both dogs were now looking "up" in the same direction.

The Massive Triangle

It took a moment for my eyes to adjust, but then I saw it; a massive triangular UFO sitting motionless in the air above us. The object was horizontal in the sky, with the point of the triangle at the top and the wingspan below that.

The air reeked of ozone, which really surprised me as I didn't see any sign of lightning the entire ride home from work, or since I had arrived home. Looking at the object, I had a strong feeling that there was something very unnatural before me; it was as if this object was not entirely there before me, only a "portion" and another "portion" was somewhere else.

It was as if a hole or window had been punched into the air above me, reeking of ozone and the object was within this "hole." I tried to make sense in my mind to what I was watching, and tried to dismiss this object as a classified aircraft since the main gate of McGuire Air Force Base was about 1 ½ miles away. I then began to wonder why the Air Force would test such a Top Secret Aircraft in a residential area away from the base instead of some place like Area 51. Nothing made sense at all, especially a craft that obviously has mastered gravity. While pondering these thoughts, I decided to calm down and smoke a cigarette.

An Unusual Feeling

At the instant I struck my lighter, an immense wave of "feeling" hit me, the hair rose on the back of my neck and it was very clear that both my dogs reacted in the same instant as the feeling hit me. The "feeling" I had was unmistakable, it seethed through every part of my being.

It was pure contempt, as if I was the intruder! In this instant I knew it was not of human origin and I immediately began walking back to the house and didn't look back. I had an unshakeable sensation that I had eyes on my back the entire time bringing the dogs home.

Upon turning to leave, I then saw a translucent "tunnel" of spiraling mist on the ground leading into the farthest tree line from me with shapes moving in both directions. Upon getting back in the house, my girlfriend told me that I had been gone with the dogs for over an hour, of which I thought was maybe 15 minutes tops. At that point I looked at my watch and found it had stopped. During this entire experience, not one car passed down the road, nor was there any police or Military presence there the remainder of the night. I have kept this event secret for years, along with the location.

Please note, I am more than willing to submit to any battery of polygraph testing, hypnosis and sodium pentothal to validate my statement.

Special thanks to witness Wayne Wilson, and Ken Pfeifer, www.mufonnjnews.com

Summer is A'Coming!

(First reported Crop Circle of the year)

Hill Barn, nr East Kennett, Wiltshire

Reported 15 April 2012: Courtesy of Crop Circle Connector

We welcome the appearance of the first Crop Circle of the year and appreciate the work carried out by the Crop Circle Connector organisation.

Unfortunately the majority of the details and photographs have a © copyright clause and this prevents us from going into more detail of this particular event. The crop appears to be oilseed rape and the CCC have published close up photographs of the stems of the plants, close to the ground that have been gently bent, as though steamed. The complex patterns seem to be destined to continue, with some mysterious body of technicians bent upon confusing the Crop Circle chasers even more.

Your editor carried out early research work in the early 80's which resulted in the discovery of a HF (microwave) presence. This was disclosed at the 'Second International CCCS Conference' at Bath in August 1993 when Omar Fowler's research paper 'Crop Circles: The Final Solution' was introduced to the audience. Professor Y.H.Ohtsuki of the Waseda University, Tokyo, Japan, commented that "Electro-magnetic waves (microwaves) are produced in nature by changing electro-magnetic fields".

Michael Chorost of Duke University, North Carolina, USA. Commented: "Our work supports your idea that the plants are exposed to some electro-magnetic force. Your work's one of the best things to come out of England this summer" (1991).

TRANSIT OF SECRET DISC BY TRAILER CREATES GREAT INTEREST

This disc shaped object was shrouded in secrecy as it was being transported to what was believed to be a test facility in the USA. The vehicle caused a great deal of interest and a number of witnesses managed to shoot off a few quick photographs.

Ohio Tarp over Disc Trailer (From Filers Files)

Dayton -- Riding east on I-70 just outside of Dayton on April 5, 2012, there was a tractor trailer with an unusual load on the trailer covered with a tarp. It was surrounded by four police vehicles.

As a trucker you don't see police cars escorting a truck that much with two pilot cars also saw a black SUV in the traffic. Took pictures figured I would share them. Thanks to MUFON CMS

Editors Note: It is understood that the disc object shrouded in secrecy is a new type of UAS 'Drone' being developed by the United States Military.

Many countries have now developed 'Unmanned Aircraft Systems' craft of all shapes and sizes.

Mysterious object fell from sky and seen by Trooper & motorist

Associated Press – Thu, Apr 12, 2012

(With thanks to Jim Smith our PRA colleague in Montana USA)

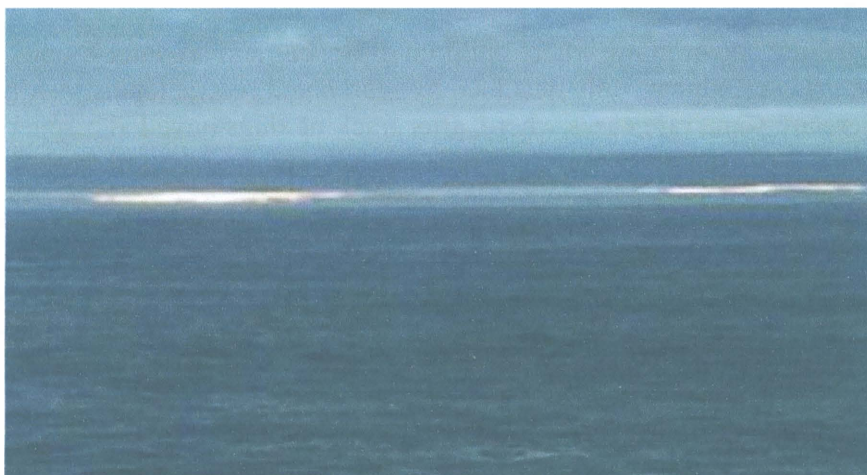

LITCHFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Authorities in northwestern Connecticut say they didn't find anything after a state trooper and another person reported a large object falling out of the sky in Litchfield.

The Republican-American of Waterbury reports (<http://bit.ly/HEwTYZ>) that a person driving in Litchfield at about 2 a.m. Tuesday reported that a green, glowing object the size of a whale fell from the sky and crashed into Bantam Lake.

Officials say that at about the same time, a state trooper 10 miles away in Warren called dispatchers to report that something fell out of the sky and landed near Bantam or Morris.

Morris firefighters made several passes up and down the lake in a boat looking for a possible plane crash, but didn't find any debris. Authorities called off the search, leaving the mystery unsolved.

California Underwater Lights (ie. USOs)

PACIFICA -- Two very large, glowing objects were observed by a large group of witnesses on March 24, 2012, in the Pacific Ocean roughly $\frac{3}{4}$ mile from the coastline at 6:30 Pm. The evening sky was 100% overcast with no direct sunlight anywhere in sight. The glowing objects appeared as sharp ovals from this distance. But it was clear that the actual shapes were discs and were submerged in the ocean at an unknown depth.

A group of witnesses stopped to watch the two submerged objects that were moving with indistinct patterns, but not resembling a worldly vehicle such as a submarine.

The lights continued to project into the late evening until about 9 pm, well past sundown. At some juncture during the event, a passing ship approached the objects in an attempt to investigate. The ship then quickly veered away from the objects in an apparent evasive maneuver to avoid confrontation. Thanks to MUFON CMS & Filers Files.

Editors Comment: Over the years there have been numerous reports of UFO objects diving in and out of the sea and lakes. The underwater glowing objects have also been seen moving rapidly underwater. This would suggest that the UFO craft move with a protective envelope isolating them from the surrounding atmosphere, whether it be air or water. It also shows that their motive power source is not connected in any way to their surrounding environment i.e. physical propulsion by engines.

Coast to Coast (USA) Weekend Edition March 26, 2012

Odd Disappearances:

On Sunday night's program, George Knapp was joined for the full four hours by David Paulides, a former lawman turned investigative journalist, for a discussion on a series of weird and odd disappearances in U.S. national parks and forests that no one can explain. "Only the top 15 people in the Parks Service know what we are talking about," Paulides said about the hundreds of mysterious vanishings that have occurred at these locations.

Acknowledging that animal attacks and accidents do occur in the forest, he contended that these disappearances are different because they leave no clues to suggest such prosaic explanations. Over the course of the evening, he detailed instances where people vanish within minutes, never to be seen again, and where bone fragments of victims were found, as if they'd been eaten, yet their clothes have been carefully removed.

One bizarre trend amongst the cases is that the victims appear to travel a vast distance or into a location which should be physically impossible to reach. To that end, Paulides detailed the story of a two-year-old boy named Keith Parkins, who vanished near Umatilla National Forest. The child would eventually be found an astounding 12 miles away after being gone for only 19 hours.

The journey, Paulides said, would require the toddler to venture over two mountain ranges, as well as fences, creeks, and rivers.

The case, he revealed, is just one of many where children disappear and are later found "several hundred percent" outside of the grid system carefully designed by search and rescue teams. Additionally, Paulides noted that there are some rare cases where, after tracking dogs have led rescuers to a large river, search teams will explore the other side and "miles away, they find the kid."

While Paulides was reticent to offer a specific theory as to what is behind this rash of disappearances, he did observe that the DNA of children is more pure than adults, which may suggest some kind of alien abduction scenario. He also cited a common theme of these cases where it will snow or rain following the disappearance, but the victim will later be found wearing dry, clean clothes and "there's no way they had been outdoors."

Beyond that, children who have gone missing, and then returned alive, recall encounters with wolf-like creatures or a bear that "cuddled with them all night." Compounding the mystery, Paulides said that, in several instances, people have disappeared at locations with "devil" in the name, which may indicate that these places have a long history of sinister events attached to them.

UK/ England Bright Object

WEST KENNET -- (Near Silbury Hill, Wiltshire).

Chasing UFO's is my hobby. Last Week we had great weather in the UK and using this opportunity I decided to sky watch on March 30, 2011. I was on my way home from my camping and was walking down from Tan Hill when I saw this bright object in the field down below.

I realized that this object was moving around the field in random direction, so I thought it was maybe some kind of plastic bag flying around with the wind. I pulled out my video camera, at 12:15 PM, on a foggy cloudy day. I was about 250 meters above sea level as I shot the video in a mixture of sun and thin clouds.

This condition in photographic terms is called spread light. I found the farm building and used it as an orientation point to zoom in. This object looked like it melted out from my view, perhaps plummeted into the ground? Thanks to MUFON CMS Ken Pfeifer MUFON NJ www.worldUFOphotos.org

'It's 99% certain there is life on Mars': Shock finding as scientists re-analyse soil samples from Seventies Viking lander

By Rob Waugh PUBLISHED: 09:08, 13 April 2012 | UPDATED: 09:49, 13 April 2012 (Extract: Mail on line)

In July 1976, the Viking 1 probe touched down on Mars and failed to find traces of life - but now, three decades later, scientists think the experiment was flawed. Viking 1 did find evidence of extraterrestrial microbes in soil samples from the Red Planet.

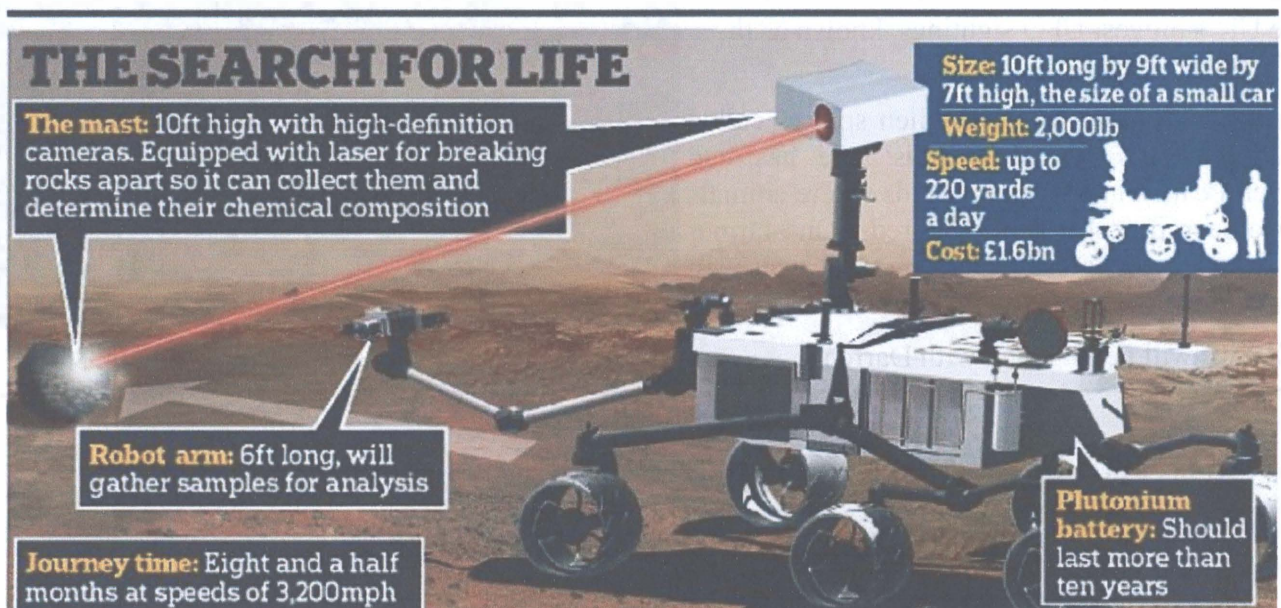

Mathematical analysis of the samples concluded that salts in the soil on Mars 'threw off' initial estimates - and that the soil samples show strong evidence of microbial life. The new analysis looked for 'complexity' in the samples - an indication of life. To the surprise of the scientists, they found it.

'This suggests a robust biological response,' say the researchers, from the University of Siena and California's Keck Institute. 'These analyses support the interpretation that the Viking LR experiment did detect extant microbial life on Mars.'

The reassessment was prompted by the discovery of 'perchlorates' in the soil at the landing site of another Mars lander, Phoenix, in 2008. The scientists behind the experiment remain divided over how conclusive the evidence for life on Mars is. Christopher McKay of Nasa's Ames Research Centre said, in an interview with Discovery News, 'Finding organics is not evidence of life or evidence of past life. It's just evidence for organics.'

'The ultimate proof is to take a video of a Martian bacteria. They should send a microscope — watch the bacteria move,' said Josheph Miller of USC's Keck School of Medicine. 'On the basis of what we've done so far, I'd say I'm 99 percent sure there's life there.' Future missions may be able to settle the question.

One forthcoming unmanned mission is the new Mars Science Laboratory rover, called Curiosity, scheduled for launch in November.

The $2.5 billion nuclear-powered machine will land on Mars' surface with a suite of 10 science instruments to try to determine if conditions are favorable for life.

Another key Mars mission is scheduled for 2016. Called the ExoMars Trace Gas Orbiter, it will carry five science instruments and will study gases in Mars' atmosphere, including methane, for evidence of biological or geological activity.

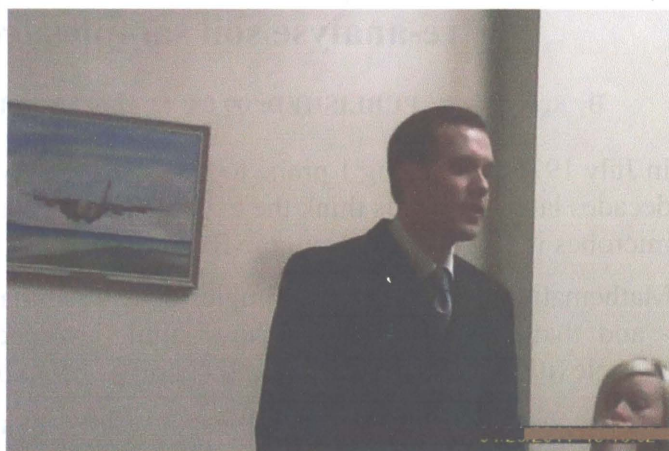

'The instruments on that atmospheric mission have a factor of 100 to 1,000 increase in sensitivity over what is currently available from Mars orbiters or from ground observations,' said Mark Allen, Ph.D., who is the U.S. project scientist for the 2016 Mars mission.

TALE ENDERS

PRA Meeting 24th April 2012.

Guest speaker and hypnotherapist Ben Holmes (picture right), trained by world famous Dolores Cannon gave an intriguing presentation to a captivated PRA audience.

He spoke of our consciousness and our subconscious mind/soul and that while we are aware of our physical body and its limitations, it was our subconscious mind that carried on through eternity (see page 4 and the Aliens comments on 'guiding our souls').

Then together with a female colleague, Ben gave a demonstration of hypnotic regression, taking the subject back through former lives and situations. A hushed audience listened intently and gave Ben a barrage of questions at the end of the hypnotic demonstration.

NEW UFO GROUP IN SHROPSHIRE (With thanks to Barbara Hughes PRA)

Darren Perks has formed a UFO study group in the past month, called 'UFO Shropshire' www.ufoshropshire.co.uk

Darren has been interested in the UFO subject since the age of 16, when returning from work, he saw a triangular object hovering in the sky, which silently shot off. Although he didn't know it at the time, this was to become one of the UK's biggest UFO sightings, known as the 'Cosford Incident'.

Darren, who believes in an alien species called the Pleiadians or 'The Nords'. He has had several calls out to farmers fields where animals have been inexplicably disfigured. "One farmer in Llanidloes showed me a cow that had been lasered and all her organs removed."

(ED: we will get in touch with Darren)

NEXT PRA MEETING

At the Royal British Legion, Allenton, Derby, (DE24 9AF) at 8pm on Tuesday 29 May 2012.

A Presentation By Andrew Johnson

We will examine the evidence that lead some to conclude the earth is hollow. What can we learn from various geological and geo-science anomalies? Is there a possibility that our world is hollow?

Plus all the latest UFO news and a Free UFO book raffle.

£2 contribution on the night: Non-members welcome
